

★ EYES AND EARS ★

December 2007

Gen. Robert H. Hatton Camp #723
Sons of Confederate Veterans
Lebanon, Tennessee
www://hatton.scv.org

Byron Davis, Commander

Spence Morgan, Adjutant

IT'S TIME FOR A CONFEDERATE CHRISTMAS PARTY

7:00 PM, Thursday, Dec. 13, 2007

Cato Building, 212 South Maple St.

We're celebrating the Christmas Season this year with one of our favorite traditions

A POT LUCK SUPPER

Bring that dish you call your "best" "favorite" or "special" with enough for you and a few more

The Camp will supply a Honey Baked Ham and a Smoked Turkey.
(you may hear from an officer - to get an idea of what everyone is bringing)

FUN and LAUGHING GUARANTEED

We'll round out the evening with:

- ★ a Game designed to lighten the spirits of even the most Grinchy 'ole Confederate or even a Scroogish 'ole Yankee;
- ★ Induction of the 2008-2009 Officers, including our new Commander, Tom Wood, along with Quartermaster, Chad Mitchell, and Sgt. At Arms, Jimmy Byrd;
- ★ Presentation of the James L. Barry Award;
- ★ Drawing for door prizes which will include prints, books, novelties and more with the help of our own Kentucky Santa

Comfortable, casual and Christmas are the words for the attire. Just whatever suits your taste from tuxedo to overalls to uniform - but most importantly, WE HOPE YOU'LL BE THERE!